KH School Speech
Competition winners

Week 7, Term 3, 2017.

Tēnā koutou,

The newsletter is a day early this week because tomorrow the whole school will be performing at the Cultural Festival. We will be performing from 12pm until 12.25pm. Whaea June and Whaea Waireka have been working with the students, helping them perfect their waiata, poi and haka skills. The day promises to be really entertaining and I would encourage you to get along to support our students.

I was very proud of the way our students delivered their speeches at our Speech Competition! The feedback from the judges was very positive and they were impressed that every student in the school wrote and delivered a speech. Congratulations to Lucy Allomes who won the Year 7&8 competition and Jaimee McKinlay who won the Year 5&6 competition. Both girls will go on to represent our school at the Woodville Lions Speech competition on Wednesday night, all the best girls!

Yesterday we had our school photos. Every child will have come home with a slip of paper with details which are unique to them printed on it. You can visit the website at orders.lcscott.co.nz and view the photos before placing your order.

Have an awesome week.

Ngā mihi nui,

Simon.
